

Logic & Rhetoric School Uniforms

In the Logic & Rhetoric School, students in all grades are required to purchase school uniform clothing from Lands' End only. The change from a dress code in the Grammar School to a school uniform in the Logic & Rhetoric School is purposeful. It gives the Logic & Rhetoric School a more polished, mature, academic feel which is conducive to learning and promoting the high academic standards Providence is known for. And, of course, uniforms overall limit classroom distractions and reduce potential student conflict.

Lands' End has the Logic & Rhetoric Uniform Code on file. To purchase online, go to landsend.com/school and create or sign in to your account. Include your student and school information in My Account (or find our School using the Preferred School Number Search: 900053083). Start shopping with your personalized product checklist. *It is important if you purchase online from Lands' End to create an account, as Providence receives a percentage back on all purchases made by Providence families. School Dress Code & Uniform Enforcement

The school faculty, Principal, and Headmaster will enforce the School Dress Code & Uniform Policy. Interpretation and application of the policy standards will be the responsibility of the Headmaster.

If the Headmaster deems the infraction a “sin of ignorance” or a “sin of forgetfulness,” he will take note of the incident and ask the student not to wear the offending item or forget the required item again. In addition, beginning in 3rd grade, forgetting a required dress code item will result in a loss of recess for the Grammar School student and a detention (e.g. lunch detention or various school chores) for the Logic & Rhetoric School student.

If the Headmaster deems the infraction a “sin of rebellion,” an incident of disobedience will be recorded and handled by the terms of the Discipline Policy. Furthermore, beginning in 3rd grade, a student will receive an office visit after three dress code violations.
